Everyone keeps wanting us to do new shirts but it is so hard to get the right sizes, styles etc....

Custom Ink helped come up with a new design and SIX styles to choose from Hoodies,, t-shirts long sleeve t-shirts in unisex and youth sizes....

So go to the link and order what you want and the size(s) you want... they will keep track of it all through Dec 20th or so and then will ship to all of us that have ordered.

We need 14 shirts all together ordered for them to mail out..i don't think that will be a problem, but please take the time in the next few days to check the stuff out

BASH Nov 4th Fun Run and Clinic RECAP

A fabulous group met up on Nov. 4 for a Fun Run, a Beginner Mushing Clinic and a Husky Hike. Most people and their dogs participated in at least two of the events. First off was a group who's dogs are trained to pull. A group of two bicycles and three scooters ran Coyote Creek from Shady Park to Hellyer Park back, about miles. Everyone's dogs raced the other teams to catch up and take the lead. They had so fun running in a group.

trying much we back

When got Mark Scrivener set up for the Into to Mushing. We had a small class, which was perfect for both newbie dogs and humans. We taught people how to fit harness on their dogs and how to teach their dogs to pull. First Mark showed everyone how to use a double leash to walk their dog while putting pressure on the harness. And what commands to use. Mark had brought a couple tires for the dogs to pull. Everyone took turns having their dogs pull tires through the fallen leaves under the oak trees. Then we made use of the one mile exercise loop to try out scootering. It was wonderful to see some of the dogs adopted from BASH revel in pulling. Karen has a little red wagon set up for the dogs to pull, so the kids got a dog powered ride around the park.

After the clinic Beth lead a group hike traveling the same route as the fun run. Finish up a wonderful morning of activities for all skill levels.

I, Ikumma, (just call me Kuma) which means fire, tried my paw at making coffee in San Francisco, but now I'm in the south bay looking for new family and friends! I am a 11 month young, large red Siberian with copper eyes and flame markings on my forehead!

I am excellent with children and great on leash. Though still new to my foster home, I do love getting brushed and playing with my foster brothers (human and canine). I do well playing in the dog park and am mellow and easy to walk. I am looking for a loving, experienced, home who will help my flame burn bright!

Leash trained, crate trained, good with children, other dogs. No cats or pocket pets please.

Boone is a very sweet skinny boy from San Francisco. He plays great with other dogs his size. We have not tested him with smaller dogs. He loves to hang around the house and let's us know when he needs to go out. He walks well on a leash. We are still learning about him, so contact his foster mom for updates on information.

He is a neutered Male, 12 months old, Housetrained, Crate Trained, Lead Trained, good with Children, good with Large Dogs, has Rabies vaccinations, has DHLPP vaccinations, microchipped.

Have a very
Merry Christmas,
Happy Hanukkah
Be Safe and have fun
