Homemade Mint Dog Treats Recipe

Recipe makes about four dozen small treats.

What you'll need:

- 4 cups whole wheat flour
- 1 cup water
- 1 tbsp coconut oil (for added health benefits)
- 1 egg
- 1 cup fresh mint
- 1/2 cup fresh parsley
- Dog bone shaped cookie cutters

Directions:

- Preheat oven to 350°.
- Start by whisking the egg, water and coconut oil in a large bowl until it becomes a smooth mixture.
- Slowly pour the 4 cups of flour into the liquid mixture until it creates a workable dough.
- Knead in the parsley and mint. (You could also add it to the flour before you pour it into the liquid mixture, but I chose to knead it in). If you find that your dough is too dry, add some water 1/4 cup at a time. If your dough is too sticky, add more flour as necessary.
- Sprinkle some flour on your kitchen counter top or work space. Roll out the dough.
- Cut the dough into shapes using the dog bone shaped cookie cutters.
- Lay the treats on a baking sheet.
- Bake for 15 minutes, or longer if you want a harder treat.
- Let the treats completely cool before giving them to your dog. Refrigerate for up to a week to preserve freshness.

BASH isn't able to get meetups going yet but in the mean time there are other groups that many of us are members of the do fun things with their northern breed dogs. Check them out and see if they are something for you

SF Husky Meetup

We're a volunteer-based meetup group that's all about the socialization of Northern Dog Breeds! Our pack members and Admins host meetups all around the San Francisco Bay Area for our social pups at dog parks, beaches, and on trails. We host an annual snow trip and try to coordinate a beach weekend away as well every year. We also try to educate each other about our dogs through active (but respectful) discussions and posts. And we are pro-rescue or buying from licensed breeders--let's stop backyard breeding in its tracks! We also believe in R+ training for Huskies. This group is for owners of Huskies and Malamutes who live in the S.F. Bay Area and want to meet up and also like chatting online to stay in touch and share information. We strive to maintain a small local community of active participants—members who don't attend meetups or regularly interact online will be removed from our group after two months of non-participation.

To join our wonderful Facebook group, make sure to answer all the entry questions when you first apply or your application won't be reviewed. Once you've been approved, read the Group Rules and Pinned Announcements right away, and please introduce yourself and your dog to the rest of the group.

Thank you and see you out there! 🐾

Bay Area Urban Musers

Bay Area Urban Musers is a group of dog lovers and dogs who get together for canicross, carting, scootering, and bikejoring in the San Francisco Bay Area.

Our members post regular meetups for people and dogs to enjoy urban mushing and to help newcomers get started in this awesome activity.

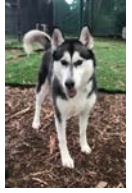

It is OK for members to post used mushing equipment for sale (scooters, harnesses, etc), and to post information about rescue dogs in need of adoption. No animals for sale or other commercial activity allowed. OK for members to recommend products, services, or companies pertinent to mushing that they have used.

Harper is my name! I am small, sweet and sassy! I have a happy, bold, joyful personality in a little package. I am a black and white Siberian Husky girl with dark brown eyes around 18 months old. I am currently 36#. I passed all the behavior tests and was in adoptions until the rise in COVID cases closed the doors where I was. So now I'm here in BASH rescue! I LOVE LOVE to play fetch and go for walks. I am crate trained and lead trained, though like many huskies my foster mommy says I need to learn not to pull so much. I am good with elementary age children and love playing chase with their toys. No cats, small dogs or pocket pets pretty please! I like large dogs and I play hard. Being new to rescue, my foster parents are only just learning all my wonderful qualities. I can't wait to be a member of your family!

My name is Violet and I am close to two years old 35# Black and White Siberian Husky girl with dark enchanting eyes. I LOVE to play fetch with just about anything and am loving with young children 2+. I may have a little too much energy for very small humans. I do well with playful, confident, large dogs. No small dogs or cats please. Secure yards with secure fencing preferred. I am working on my crate training and indoor manners- and making great progress! Do you have that hole in your life that says "take me to play ball?" I'm waiting for you! I'm ready to go home!

Bailey's and cream! My name is Bailey and I am a young chocolate red and white Alaskan Husky girl with bright blue eyes. I am tall and lean and may eventually fill out to be around 65#. I have a loving and eager nature and am great with people and children. As a COVID puppy I was not socialized with other dogs and am slowly learning correct behavior, particularly with other females. It's been a lot of firsts for me. Though I am learning well in a multiple dog foster home now, it was scary for me at the start. At this time I would do best as a single dog or with a family ¹⁰⁰ dedicated to slowly and patiently integrating me with their current canine companions. That said, I ADORE my people, am house broken and a loving, loyal, companion. Are you ready to bring my love into your life? I'd love to meet you! I am around 18 m- 2 years old.

Meet Ray!, a petite 45lb male that loves to play with dogs and being with people! He is extremely goofy and exuberant but is able to stay home loose in the house with his husky brother and sister. He takes corrections very well from older dogs and will rough house with any dog that is willing to play with him. He had a rough start in life and nobody ever taught him manners so he has a lot of learning to do! He is still learning what being a house dog is but is learning fast! He will not do well in a home with small dogs or children and will need an experienced dog owner that understands he will take a little time and training.

I am Dory. I am about 2 to 3 years but My foster parents think I act younger. I love to be with other dogs and my favorite is to rough house. I get along with lots of doggie friends and I also love people!! Every time I meet someone, I say hello by giving hugs and kisses. True to my name, my absolute favorite entertainment is playing with water and swimming! just keep swimming, just keep swimming, swimming swimming.....

My foster family says I am super sweet, smart, and curious. I already know a lot, mostly I listen to sit, shake "hand", and focus. But I still have so much more to learn. I love treats so I love my training sessions and look forward to them!
