12th Annual Fall Furry Flurry

Over all it was a success....about $2500 was made by all of the groups combined. We had 36 walkers and many that came out for the games. It was smaller than last year but talking with other groups and their events, they were also smaller this year.

First Camping We meet about 5 pm at the brown gate. There are only 2 gates now to go through. I will post what food to bring for the group. You can camp in tents, outside or in cars. There is plenty of water and a porta potty ¼ mile away. It is great fun.

Christmas Treat Recipe

- Mix 2 cups all-purpose flour, 1½ cup whole wheat flour, ¼ cup cracked wheat, 1/8 cup dry milk and ½ teaspoon salt. Add ¼ cup water, 1 tablespoon raw honey, 4 tablespoons olive oil, 1 beaten egg and 1 capsule of vitamin E. Poke a hole in the capsule and drain the oil out. The vitamin E acts as a preservative that will keep your dog treats fresh. Mix well. When it gets too hard to mix with a spoon, use your hands to work the dough into a ball. Roll the dough out onto a floured work surface to ¼ inch thick. Cut shapes with cookie cutters and place the dog treats on a lightly greased cookie sheet. Bake the dog treats in a preheated 300-degree Fahrenheit oven for 30 minutes.

When all the batches of dog treats are cooked, pile them all on one cookie sheet and leave them in the oven at 175 degrees Fahrenheit for two hours. This will remove the moisture, which will allow you to keep the dog treats in your cupboard shelf rather than in the refrigerator.

You may change out the ingredients to this basic recipe to create your own signature dog treat recipe. Replace the olive oil with peanut butter or flax seed oil. Replace the cracked wheat with flax seeds, sunflower seeds, cornmeal, crushed pumpkin seeds or liver powder. Replace the honey with molasses.

Pat Hannum PatHannum@aol.com

Gabe is a tall, beautiful, long haired Siberian with gorgeous brown eyes. His long hair makes him look bigger than he really is...he is only 46#'s. He is very affectionate and loves to give hugs and kisses. He is good in a crate and rides well in a car. He is young and still puppyish....although sweet he can be a prankster. Gabe loves the outdoors! The beach, the park, or just a walk in the neighborhood; it is all great. Gabe gets along well with both the large and small dogs that we have met along the way and walks fairly well on a leash. He greets every day with renewed exuberance. You need to meet Gabe to see how great he is.

Cocoa:

The best way to describe me is a cinnamon bun on four legs! I am sweet, with a deep rust red and white coat and big blue eyes. I am lovingly attached to my life-long buddy Benji and would prefer to be adopted with him. However, I would be happy with a loving forever home that had another large dog companion. I am more refined and shy than sweet Benji, but I warm up quickly and love belly rubs and to be a part of the family. I am great with small children, other dogs, and all people. I too am crate, kennel, and house trained. I know sit, paw and stay and am eager to learn so much more! My ideal forever home will have time to teach me excellent leash manners and would never let me off leash in an unprotected area. I respond quickly and with great joy to all my humans! I can't wait to meet you. Please no families with cats, chickens, rabbits or other small animals.

Benji:

If you ever wanted to have the most sincere, happy, well trained, gorgeous bi-eyed Siberian Husky in your life, I'm your guy! I am black and white with a full plumed tail. I am full of youthful exuberance and love and very attached to my best-friend Cocoa who was surrendered with me. I love children, playing and people. I would be best if adopted with my buddy, whom I've been with since I was a puppy, but will play with and make friends with any large dog companion at my new forever home. I am kennel, crate, and house trained, but I need more time and love on my leash training. Hey, I'm all Siberian, I was born to pull! I'm eager to please and learn and look forward to meeting you! Please no families with cats, chickens, rabbits or other small animals.

Glacier is an easy-going dog, but a bit shy and needs to warm up to people. He is good with other dogs, and is best suited in a home with other dogs. He is new to rescue, so this listing will be updated as we learn more about him.

He is a neutered Male, 12 months old, good with Large Dogs, has Rabies vaccinations, microchipped.
